114. General Charity - [Charity Commissioners' Report, Vol. 26, p. 768.]	The Godolphin Charities	-- Robert Long (since deceased), the surviving Trustee, and Harry Biggs, and Margaretta Ann his Wife, and Charles Marshall Godolphin Cobbe (deceased) the Patrons, as co-heirs of the founder; and, by information of revivor, Caroline Cobbe and Francis Cobbe, the co-heiresses of Charles Marshall Godolphin Cobbe, and, by second information of revivor, Thomas Ball Troughton, the Executor of Robert Long.	-- The object of this suit was to take the management of the charity out of the hands of Robert Long, the sole surviving trustee, to recover funds which through his neglect had been transferred to the Commissioners for Reducing the National Debt, and to improve the administration of the charity funds, under the supervision of proper trustees. The answers in the first information of revivor were put in. The suit abated a second time by the death of the defendant R. Long; an information of revivor was filed against his executor, and answer obtained. Decree and order made for an inquiry as to the charity property, the receipts and payments of the trustees, who were the heirs of the founder, and as to a sum, 1,908 l. 3 s. 9 d. Consols, transferred to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt. All these inquiries have been prosecuted in the Master's Office. The sum of 1,908 l. 3 s. 9 d. Consols, and dividends amounting to 1,306 l. 4 s. 8 d., have been re-transferred to the charity. The Master's report as to the other inquiries, including a scheme, is in course of being settled. The receiver's accounts have been annually passed, and the balance paid into court.
115. General Charity - [Charity Commissioners' Report, Vol. 32, Part 2, p. 421.]	Thomas Howell's Charity	The Drapers' Company - -	-- The object of this suit was to have the whole income of the charity, amounting to about 2,500 l. a year, applied for the charitable purposes of the foundation, the annual sum of 84 l. only having been so applied. The further answers having been put in, the cause was heard, and a decree made declaring that the whole of the charity property was held by the Drapers' Company in trust for the charitable purposes of the foundation, and referring it to the Master to ascertain of what the property consisted, and the income thereof, to take an account of monies received by the defendants, and to charge them with an occupation rent for that portion of the property occupied, by them as their hall, from July 1838, and to fix a proper occupation rent for the future, and to settle a scheme, and to inquire as to the necessity for an Act of Parliament to confirm such scheme. Master's report obtained, finding that with the funds of the charity the company had purchased certain tenements and gardens in the City of London, and that the site of their hall, with the gardens belonging thereto, were part of the hereditaments so purchased, and that if the same were sold it would be more beneficial to the charity that the same should be sold subject to a lease thereof for 23 years, at a ground-rent of 120 l. Order obtained directing a lease to be granted, which was granted accordingly. Order obtained referring it to the Master to approve of a Draft Bill for an Act of Parliament to enable the company to purchase, discharged from the charitable trusts, that part of the charity property on which their hall, &c. were built. Act of Parliament for that purpose obtained. Master's report obtained finding of what the charity property consisted, and that an extension should be made of the charitable objects contemplated by the testator, and approving of a scheme and Draft Act of Parliament, the latter empowering the company to purchase a further part of the charity property omitted from the former Act. Master's report confirmed, and application made to Parliament in Session 1851, but no Committee was appointed and the Bill therefore dropped. The company have since paid into court two sums of 5,000 l. on account of the balance in their hands, which have been duly invested.
116. Goring, Oxford - [Charity Commissioners' Report, Vol. 8, p. 516.]	Henry Alnutt's Charity -	-- William Morland and William Harding.	-- The suit was concluded at the date of the last return, but the dividends on the fund in court were afterwards laid out. A petition has since been presented by the trustees to obtain an alteration in the scheme, but the Court declined to make any order thereon, and ordered the costs to be paid out of the charity funds. Another petition was subsequently presented by the trustees, praying for liberty to apply 150 l. out of the surplus income in the erection of an addition to the school-house and master's residence, and an order was made accordingly, and the costs ordered to be paid by the charity.
117. Grendon, Quainton, North Newington, Bucks. [Charity Commissioners' Report, Vol. 26, p. 24.]	-- Lady Saye and Sele's Charity.	-- John Lowe, William Lowe, Jacob Marsham (since deceased), and Charles Marsham, the surviving Trustees, and, by supplemental information, John Sidney North, the Rev. Frederick Twisleton, the Rev. Charles Francis Wyatt, Sir Francis Digby Aubrey, bart., the Rev. James Noel Pigott, and George Grenville Wandisford Pigott (new Trustees.)	-- The terms of compromise were finally arranged, and an order obtained, by which it was referred to the Master to inquire of what the charity property consisted, and what was the annual income thereof, and to take an account against the defendants since the 19th April 1825; and it was ordered that the trustees of the charity should transfer three several sums of 5,985 l. 16 s. 5 d. Reduced Annuities, 490 l. 8 s. 11 d. Consols, and 7,500 l. Consols into court, and that the defendants Lowe should cease to be trustees; and it was referred to the Master to appoint other trustees in their stead, and to settle a scheme. Supplemental information filed and decree obtained. Master's general report obtained approving scheme, and order obtained on further directions, ordering the charities to be administered under separate schemes, and altering the scheme approved by the Master accordingly. Separate bodies of trustees have been selected and appointed.

120. Hartlebury, Worcester. [Charity Commissioners' Report, Vol. 26, p. 631.]	- - The Free Grammar School.	- - The Governors of the Free Grammar School of Queen Elizabeth in Hartlebury, George Hallen, since deceased (the acting Governor), and the Bishop of Worcester (Patron), and, by supplemental information, James Bourne, William Pitt, and Susan Cole (Lessees), and by further supplemental information, William Hopkins, Benjamin Seager, and George Ball (Lessees).	-- Order obtained referring it to the Master to approve of additional governors and a scheme for the future regulation of the school, and to approve of qualified persons as masters. Supplemental information filed and decree obtained. Master's general report obtained, finding of what the charity property consisted, and recommending proceedings to be taken to set aside four of the existing leases thereof. Order obtained on further directions, directing such proceedings to be taken, and directing a reference to appoint masters and settle an ad interim scheme, and to take an account against the defendants the governors, who were directed to transfer into court 600 l. stock standing in their names, and pay in any balance in their hands. Proceedings taken against the several lessees (see separate suits), and same compromised. Order obtained referring it to the Master to ascertain what was due from William Pitt and Susan Cole in respect of the property held by them, and directing the balance to be paid into court, and empowering the governors to relet the premises, and referring it to the Master to fix an occupation rent to be paid by Hopkins, Seager, and Ball. Report obtained approving of ad interim scheme. Order obtained confirming same, with certain variations, and referring it back to the Master to appoint the full number of twenty governors, and to inquire into the state and condition of the school buildings, and what was proper to be expended in repairing or rebuilding the same. Surveyor's report obtained. Master's report obtained, finding what was due from the defendants Pitt, Cole, Hopkins, Seager and Ball, and as to reletting the charity property previously held by them. Accounts against the defendants the governors taken. Master's report obtained, approving of proposed repairs and additional buildings. Order obtained to invest 325 l. 3 s. 2 d. paid into court by the Oxford, Worcester and Wolverhampton Railway Company, in respect of land taken by them. Order obtained confirming the two last reports, directing certain variations in scheme, and ordering balances reported due from the former lessees to be paid into court; sanctioning proposed repairs and new buildings, and directing the taxation and payment of costs.
121. Hay, Brecon - [Charity Commissioners' Report, Vol. 32, Part 3, p. 367.]	- - Elizabeth Gwynne's Almshouses.	- - James Spencer, and John Stephens, John Jones, Thomas Watkins, and Jonathan Thomas, Churchwardens and Overseers of the Parish.	- - The object of this suit was to recover 600 l. of the charity property from the defendant Spencer, and to appoint new trustees. Answers of defendants Stephens and others filed. Defendant Spencer having agreed to pay 600 l., an order was made for its payment by him, and for its investment. He did not pay it, but conveyed away his property to trustees for the benefit of his creditors, enumerating the charity among them in respect of the 600 l. and interest. Counsel advised that it was doubtful whether this deed could be set aside. The defendant Spencer has since died, and it is believed that his property will not realize the amount of the mortgages thereon, and that nothing will be left for the charity.

122. Hayes, Middlesex, Petersham, Surrey, Westminster School. [Charity Commissioners' Report, Vol. 10, p. 307.]	- Dr. Thomas Triplett's Charity.	- - The Rev. Edward Ward and James Ward (Lessees), and Robert Willis Blencowe, John Neville Freeman, John Henry Gell, George Giles Vincent, William Egerton Gell, Allen Blizard, and Robert Thornley (Trustees of the Charity).	- - The Master's general report has been obtained, whereby he found that 33 acres of land, called Fish Ponds, belonging to the charity, were in the possession of the defendant Ward; but he included in the vicarial tithes, to which he found the defendant Edward Ward entitled, the tithes of peas and beans, which had been claimed on behalf of the charity as rectorial tithes. Exceptions were therefore taken to the report, which came on to be heard with the cause on further directions, and by the order then obtained the Master's finding as to the 33 acres of land was confirmed, and the tithes of peas and beans were given to the charity, and an account was directed against the defendants in respect thereof; the defendants were ordered to give up possession of the land to the receiver, and it was referred to the Master to fix an occupation rent to be paid by the defendants in respect thereof since September 1822. The Tithe Commissioners were thereupon applied to to make a supplemental award, apportioning the tithe rentcharge previously fixed, in conformity with the decree, and the usual meetings were held for that purpose, but before the supplemental award was completed, the defendant Edward Ward filed a bill against the Assistant Tithe Commissioner to restrain him from signing it, and the matter is now the subject of an appeal, which awaits the judgment of the Lord Chancellor.
123. Heavitree, Devon - [Charity Commissioners' Report, Vol. 10, p. 136.]	Ann Serle's Gift - -	Ann Wolland - - - -	- The proceedings in this cause were discontinued prior to the last Return. Several applications have been made to the defendant to pay a balance of 243*l.* 8*s.* 10*d.*, admitted by her to have been received from the estate of the foundress of the charity, but without effect; but part of this balance consists of the proceeds of real estate, to which the charity can lay no claim, and it is very doubtful whether if the proceedings were continued a sufficient sum would be recovered to pay the costs.
124. Hereford - - [Charity Commissioners' Report, Vol. 32, Part 2, p. 56.]	Mary Price's Almshouses	- - Henry Harcourt Aubrey (out of the jurisdiction), inserted, by amendment, in place of Frederick Wynne Aubrey, Giovanni Aubrey Bezzi, and Charlotte his Wife, George Pawnal Adams, and George Leach, and, by supplemental information, Richard Pemberton.	- Answer to original and supplemental informations filed; decree made, referring it to the Master (on proof of defendant Aubrey being out of the jurisdiction) to inquire of what the charity property consisted, and to take an account of all sums received by the defendant Pemberton in respect of the charity since 1838, after making certain allowances to him; to appoint trustees; settle a conveyance to them; and approve of a scheme. Subsequent order obtained for receiver, who is in receipt of the rents of the charity property.
125. Herne, Kent - - [Charity Commissioners' Report, Vol. 30, p. 301.]	- - Sir William Sedley and Sir John Smith's Charity.	- Valyer Bean and Others, Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish of Herne.	- This information was filed for the purpose of obtaining a declaration that certain annuities of 2*l.* 2*s.* and 1*l.* 1*s.* were solely applicable to the charitable purposes therein mentioned, and that the charity was entitled to the poorhouse of the parish of Herne; that new trustees might be appointed, and that the churchwardens and overseers and other necessary parties might join in the requisite conveyance, and that it might be referred to the Master to settle a scheme, and that in the meantime the churchwardens and overseers might be restrained by injunction from selling the poorhouse; the poorhouse was subsequently sold by the Poor Law Commissioners, and the purchase-money, amounting to 285*l.*, together with interest thereon, has recently been recovered, paid into the bank, and invested.
126. Hexham, Warden, Cholerton, St. John Lee, and Corbridge, Northumberland. [Charity Commissioners' Report, Vol. 23, p. 484.]	- - Ursula Mountney's Charities.	- - William Todd, Nicholas Todd, and Nicholas Leadbitter, and the Solicitor-general.	- - The Master has made his report, by which he found that there was due for arrears of rentcharge the sum of 408*l.*, reduced by payment of costs thereout to 247*l.* 7*s.* 3*d.* An order was made on further directions, directing all subsequent costs to be paid out of the said sum of 247*l.* 7*s.* 3*d.* if sufficient, but if not, then out of the future payments of the rentcharge; any surplus, and all future payments of the rentcharge of 22*l.*, part of the rentcharge of 32*l.*, to be made to the person to be appointed by the Crown by sign manual, and the remaining 10*l.* to the defendant Leadbitter, to be applied according to the will.

Further proceedings under the decree have been taken, and a question as to the removal of the school deferred until the effect of a railway running through the parish was seen. Mr. Vansittart and his wife having died, a supplemental information was filed against Mr. and Mrs. Newcomen, the latter being successor to the manor of Kirk Leatham, and the Rev. James Holme, the usher. Their answers were put in, and a decree made for the prosecution of the original suit, for continuing the taking of the accounts, for a receiver, and for an inquiry as to the amount due to the defendant Holme for his salary as usher. A receiver has been appointed. A proposal by the defendant Teresa Newcomen, for compromise, is now under consideration.

The Master made a report, and found that the corporation had paid 5,365 l. 2 s., and that there was due for interest a sum amounting, after deducting costs, to 1,591 l. 1 s. 1 d.; and by his general report he found that the said sums had been invested, and that there was then standing to the credit of the cause, in Bank Three per Cent. 139. Lewes, Sussex - [Charity Commissioners' Report, Vol. 30, p. 705.]	Thomas Blunt's Charity	- Thomas Whiteman and Others, and, by supplemental information, Joseph Maxfield and Others.	- - The cause was concluded previously to the date of the last Return, but an order has since been obtained for the delivery out to the defendants of the deeds deposited with their clerk in court.
140. Lewes, Sussex - [Charity Commissioners' Report, Vol. 30, p. 706.]	The Pest House - -	- - Christopher Kell, William Polhill Kell, John Hoper, William Franklin Hick (deceased), John Blaker, William Madgwick (deceased), George Molineux, and Joseph King, being the Paving and Lighting Commissioners.	- - A petition was presented for the appointment of trustees, and an order made accordingly. Proceedings were carried on in the Master's Office. The Master made his report, and settled a scheme. An order was made on further directions, confirming the report and the appointment of trustees, and referring it back to the Master to approve a site for building in pursuance of the scheme, and to fix a sum to be expended thereon. Subsequent order made for payment of the dividends of the stock to trustees, to be applied by them pursuant to the scheme. The principal and interest recovered was invested in 1,389 l. 19 s. 6 d. stock. Costs taxed and paid.
141. Lincoln - - - [Charity Commissioners' Report, Vol. 32, Part 4, p. 394.]	The Meer Hospital -	- - The Rev. Richard Pretyman (the Master), the Dean and Chapter of Lincoln, and the Right Rev. John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, as Patrons.	- - The object of this suit was to prevent the defendant Richard Pretyman from appropriating to his own use the fines received on leasing the charity property (such fines since the year 1818 having amounted to 13,147 l.), and to put an end to the system of leasing on fines, in order that the whole annual value of the charity property might be applied for charitable purposes. Decree made establishing the charity, and declaring that the defendant Pretyman was not justified in appropriating the fines to his own use; for an account against him, and for a scheme. Order obtained for inquiry as to the charity property, and as to taking proceedings for setting aside a lease thereof to Major Colegrave. The Master reported as to the charity property, and that proceedings ought to be taken against Major Colegrave. The Court discharged the defendant Pretyman from the account on his giving security for payment of 1,000 l. on his death. The suit against Major Colegrave has resulted in a compromise, under which land containing about 50 acres was recovered for the charity. The proceedings for a scheme have been suspended until the lease to Major Colegrave falls in, which will be in the spring of 1854. Major Colegrave having claimed the tithes of the charity property, his claim was contested, and two trials had at Lincoln thereon. The first resulted in a verdict for the charity, but a new trial was granted, and at the second trial Major Colegrave obtained a verdict; an application for a third trial failed. It was part of the compromise with Major Colegrave that he should pay his own costs of the suit against him, and of the tithe action.

Henry Prosser, Minister, and William Bennett and William Saunders, Churchwardens of Garway; the Rev. Henry Wetherell, Minister, and Joseph Garland, Churchwarden of Kentchurch; and the Rev. Hugh Hamner Morgan, Rector of Llanganan.	- - The Master made his report, by which he found that the charity property consisted of certain farm messuages and 99 A. 3 R. 4 P. of land, let for 45 l. 18 s. That defendant Cotterell had received money belonging to the charity to the amount of 859 l. 15 s. 8 d., but that he had applied 240 l. 9 s. to the purposes of the charity, leaving a balance of 619 l. 6 s. 8 d.; and that he had appointed trustees, approved of a conveyance to them, and settled a scheme. Order obtained on further directions, confirming the scheme, ordering defendant Cotterell to pay into court 619 l. 6 s. 8 d. found due from him, to account for subsequent receipts, and directing the costs to be paid out of the money paid into court. The costs have been taxed and paid.

160. London, St. Stephen, Walbrook. [Charity Commissioners' Report, Vol. 14, p. 554, and Vol. 32, Part 2, p. 360.]	-- Thomas Dickinson's Charity.	-- The Rev. George Stephen Townley, Clerk; Michael Gibbs, John Pelly Atkins, John Dobson, Thomas Brockbank, Daniel Ralph Munn, and Francis Alvin, being the Rector and Parish Officers.	-- This cause does not appear in any of the Returns since that of 1829-30, where it is set out as No. 46. It was ordered to stand over until 1845, in order that on the expiration of the lease of the charity property a scheme might be settled for the application of the increased income then expected to take place, the parish in the meantime keeping an account of, and accumulating the unapplied portion of the then rent of 10 l. per annum. Since the expiration of the lease an order has been obtained, whereby it is referred to the Master to inquire of what the charity property consisted, and who were the surviving trustees thereof; to approve of proper persons to be new trustees, and to inquire whether any repairs were necessary, and whether the premises ought to be relet, and to receive proposals for the purpose; to take an account of the receipts and payments of the churchwardens since the 15th June 1830, the date of the decree, and to settle a scheme. The accounts have been proceeded upon, and taken up to Michaelmas 1850. The Master's report as to the surviving trustees has been obtained, new trustees appointed, and a conveyance of the charity property to them executed.

Upon the consideration of all the circumstances, and the difficulty of identifying the lands in question, the Attorney-general approved of the proposed compromise, which has since been sanctioned by the Court.	- - - - - - - -	- - The property consists of a rentcharge of 20 l. and funds in court. Proceedings have been taken in the Master's Office under the original and first supplemental decrees. The suit having abated by deaths, a second supplemental suit was instituted, and a decree obtained, directing the former proceedings to be carried on, accounts to be taken against Dr. Webber's estate, and a reference made to a Master to inquire whether the leases of the charity property could be set aside; as to the boundaries of the charity lands; whether there was any timber which required to be felled; whether the buildings were in repair, and by whom the same ought to be repaired; as to compensation for lands taken by the Leeds and Thirsk Railway Company; and to appoint a receiver. Proceedings have been had in the Master's Office on these several inquiries. The Tithe Commissioners having in the commutation of the tithes of Mulwith, all the lands in which belong to the charity, decided that the great tithes of the district belonged to Earl de Grey, the lessee of such lands, an order was obtained to sanction an action at law to try the validity of the award. An action was commenced, but on investigating ancient documents to prepare for the trials, new facts were discovered, which were in favour of the claim of Earl de Grey to the tithes, and the action was ultimately abandoned, the Earl agreeing to pay his own costs.

The whole of the costs incurred in the proceedings by the Attorney-general at the instance of the Charity Commissioners, and in inquiries and proceedings by him relative to charities (which include court fees, counsels' fees, bills of architects and surveyors, parliamentary fees, and printers' bills), are delivered annually to the Treasury, with an account showing the sums received during the year from the charities, the parties, and the Treasury. Where such costs have been taxed in the course of the proceedings, the reduced amount only is comprised in the bills delivered to the Treasury. Where such costs are taxed after the delivery of the bills to the Treasury, the amount taxed off is credited to the Treasury in subsequent accounts.

The disallowed portion of costs is, therefore, not paid by any one.

The sums received from time to time from the parties and the charities are, as has been stated, credited to the Treasury; and as the proceedings draw to a close, the greater part of the advances made by the Treasury for carrying them on will be reimbursed. The cases in which the amount incurred will not be so reimbursed, are those in which the Attorney-general, after inquiry, found that the views of the Commissioners could not be sustained, and therefore did not proceed further; those in which he proceeded, and having obtained decrees, the parties absconded, or were unable to pay, and those in which his proceedings failed. The latter are few; that against Dulwich College, reported in 4 Beavan, 225, is the most important. In such cases the costs have, previous to a settlement, been taxed on the part of the Treasury.
